Dear Parents,

Congratulations! We are almost done with Week 3 of remote learning. At this point we are getting used to our "new normal" and hoping you are too. Please continue to remember the follow to ensure success in this journey:

1. Check in with your child's teachers daily and maintain a consistent routine.
2. Follow daily schedule of assignments posted by child's teacher each day.
3. Remind your child not to eat or drink while using Chromebook. If possible, complete work at a table or desk.
4. Take a break or two each day to unwind and if possible, encourage your child to play outside if weather permits or participate in a virtual playdate. Please see link below for information on virtual playdates:

5. Keep a positive attitude and always remember we are here to help!

As we enter the 4th week of our remote learning experience on Monday, we will be implementing "Arts in the Afternoon" each Wednesday beginning at 1 pm, starting on April 8, 2020. This EXTRA time will offer an opportunity for our students to focus on Special Areas, STEAM, and Enrichment activities. Allowing students this afternoon block will ensure they are taking the time they need to complete these wonderful hands on activities our teachers are providing. Students are encouraged to continue working in these Special Areas during the rest of the week as well so that they are able to reach each Special Area class. We look forward to seeing your children's inventiveness and creativity come to life during "Arts in the Afternoon." Please continue to do your best!

I am looking for student volunteers who would like to be included in my morning announcement videos. Please choose from the two categories below:

1. Recite the flag salute and send video to my email.
2. Video yourself and/or others participating in an act of kindness and send to my email.
3. Please send videos to pbell@lebtwpk8.org

In closing, we are grateful for your support during this adventure of remote learning. Yes, our lives are different now for all of us, but please remember that you are not alone and you can count on us. Please keep us updated and stay in touch with your child's teachers. Enjoy the weekend and stay safe.

Sincerely,
Patricia A. Bell
